Dear Colleague,

We are very glad to invite you at the second Russian-Italian Congress, this event is sign of intensive collaboration between the most important Russian and Italian Societies of Surgery.

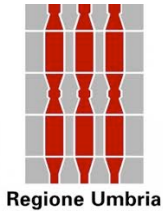

Continuing for the way of the great past successes, we wanted to combine the high scientific value of Symposium with the splendid Umbria.

Umbria a region rich in history, art and culture, has always been a goal sought thanks to ability to satisfy, with its valuable historical and artistic heritage the most varied travel requirements.

Enchanting medieval villages, archaeological treasures of art and an interesting environmental sensibility have been able to maintain over time their nature and custom.

So we will expect you as to satisfy your scientific interest, as to give your family a wonderful journey of pleasure in Italy.
